" NOTICE OF AMENDED AGENDA OF MATTERS SCHEDULED FOR HEARING ON NOVEMBER 10, 2010 AT 10:00 A.M."

States, "II. CONTESTED MATTERS:

Unresolved Responses:

A. Response of Chris Stovic [Docket No. 11843]"

"Status: This matter is going forward on a contested basis solely with respect to the Unresolved Responses listed above....to December 1, 2010 at 10:00 a.m."

In Re to Unresolved Response,

- 1 I did try to register for teleconference court hearing; After being informed of high fees to participate, I change my mind.
- 2 I believe the fees should be paid by the "Debtor in possession" for the following reasons:
 - a/ The court granted incentive-bonuses for the management one year ago.
 - b/ The debtor filed a motion again for incentives-bonuses for the management.
 - c/ The trustees supported again the debtors motion for incentives - bonuses, failing to protect the interest of the creditor.
 - d/ The debtor filed a petition to reorganize but does not know where the funds are!
 - f/ The debtor has funds to pay $800.00 dollars or more an hour for professional services, but not for teleconference.

- 3 I am not naive to believe that there was no knowledge and no intent when the notes were rated and sold as "rated A2 by Moody rating and A by S&P," Simply, Deceit by Intent, knowledge and recklessness; The wheels were in motion to enrich, selling notes at a "safe investment rank," and about four weeks later from the date we purchased the Notes, The LBHI filed for bankruptcy. See the enclosed Exhibit.
- 4 "We were improperly exposed to risk by concealment." The ultimate risk was concealed, entrapment - selling securities at an "investment grade rated "A!"
- 5 This can hardly be called an "INVESTMENT PRODUCT OFFERED....." as stated in the Exhibit "a"; How much was paid to the ranking agency to keep the rating high while they were on rampage?
- 6 "Tort Laws define reasonable men by attention, perception, intelligence, memory, knowledge and judgment to make a reasonable decision."
- 7 The management and the legal department of LBHI were of superior knowledge, experience, highly qualified professionals and highly paid. There is no excuse for any alternatives or Reclassifying the claim.
- 8 The claim was timely filed by us and it was not necessary to be filed again by anyone on our behalf.
- 9 The claim is not a warrant, stock equity, options etc.
- 10 The claim as provided in Exhibit "a," complies with Part III, rule 3001 (F) and "constitute prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim."
- 11 "The document enclosed constituted prima facie evidence of the validity and the amount of the claim of creditor." Part III, Rule 3003 (1)
- 12 The claim has been amended "by subsequent file proof of claim one year later by the trustee," without our authority; As a matter I did not even know till several weeks ago that someone else filed "subsequent claim" on our behalf.

- 13 The trustee ERRED by subsequent filing proof of claim and reclassifying the claim from secured to unsecured; It set precedent and reasons for the Debtor to Expunge claims.
- 14 It is clearly shown in the document attached to Dockets 11843; Reclassifying the claim violates Bankruptcy Act Part III, rule 3001(F) and Part III Rule 3003 (I).
- 15 The Notes were bought for "consideration of specific stated time and value."
- 16 The trustee failed to protect the interest of the creditors by reclassifying the claims.
- 17 It is the court's duty to rectify errors caused by lack of view, knowledge or intentional harm imposed on creditors.
- 18 I expect protection by the court, and full payment of principal plus accrued interest.
- 19 Due to lack of funds and not being able to participate, Justice is being denied.

CONCLUSION

- a For the facts stated in Dockets 11843, Docket 11842 and this response, it should be more than enough facts, arguments for the court to render proper decision for the creditor.
- b In addition to being secured claim it should be reclassified also as "PRIORITY".
- c It has been almost two years since it matured. This court has nothing to show for it.
- d Reclassifying the claim to unsecured is not acceptable.
- e We did not invest the funds to pay bonuses while we have no funds to pay our bills.
- f Due to shortage of funds and health problems I will not be present physically or by teleconference on December 1, 2010.

November 15, 2010

Respectfully,

Chris Stovic
